Absent:

Absent (Excused):

Meeting Commences at 6:02 PM

Opening Ritual – Hail Sinfonia sung, Object stated

Officer Reports:

President:

- Not much to say
- Alumni BBQ went well
- Blahblahlahi'majackoff

Vice President:

- Hey, what's happenin'?

Secretary:

- Thanks to everyone for all the help with everything this weekend
- Continue to send e-mails if you can't make a meeting/required event (i.e. Rit. Rehearsal)

Treasurer:

- Brent has hard copies of the revised budget if you want one
- Current Balance = $4,253.76
- Dues were do by today. Those of you who haven't paid yet are officially on Chapter Suspension until the situation is rectified.
- Brent predicts that we will financially break even, if not make money.
- Eric needs to get us the cost for pizza after pinning so we can vote for reimbursement
- Thank you to Alumnus Eric Fitton for his donation to the chapter. We are exploring the possibility of buying a new fridge, so if any other alumni want to donate...

Fraternal Education Officer:

- Meeting times this week TBA (probably Wed. @ 8 for a make-up meeting, Thurs. @ 8 for the new probie meeting)
- Only Dave showed up to the last meeting because Andy was bed-ridden with the clap and Brett was in Romania, picking up his mail-order bride.
- All the paperwork is complete and into nationals...ON TIME! A NEW RECORD!
- Color night stuff coming soon
- Ritual is Dec. 2 at midnight, but the time is subject to change.

Historian:

- Composites are done, but not ready yet
- We are angry at Darcy, but not to an unjust degree
- Who does Sigma Chi use? They seem to be on top of it all, in spite of being choads
- Factoid: Between July of 1976 and summer of 1985, 20 PMA chapters initiated women. Guess we're not as gay as we thought, huh?

Warden:

- This was a busy week, so James didn't reserve the Chapel/Jones yet. He'll do it tomorrow

Province Council Representative:

- Musicale is October 21 and 22. If you are not in band, STEP UP TO THE FUCKING PLATE!
- Kevin needs to e-mail Danny about who to e-mail music to
- Workshop next semester at Central. You should go. They're doing rit.
- Chapter Day is next week Monday (the 16th)

Alumni Relations Officer:

- Didn't show up because the meeting was formal. Also, there was something about a "job" or something in there. A lot of his ramblings don't make much sense because he tends to confuse "L"s and "R"s.

Room Manager:

- Princess Jesse's week
- Thanks to Brent for defrosting the fridge.

Song Leader:

- Song Rehearsal afterward

Student Congress Representative:

- Blahblahblah happened this week
- There is a meeting about the Bowling for Poor Kids event tomorrow night at 8. You should go.

Old Business:Phi Sigma Sigma:

- The movie night is scheduled for Oct. 27 in either Jones or our room
- We are probably going to sing to them before hand to help Kevin, Brent, and Brian get some tail.
- "I don't need a serenade to get laid." – Brian Paul
- Should we participate in this event?
 - o Yes: 13
 - o No: 1
 - o Abstain: 0
 - o PASSES
- Tabled until next meeting until the committee of Brent, Kevin, and James get more information
- We talked about this for way the fuck too long.

Alumni Forum:

- Get bios, pics, and shit to Eric ASAP

Jazzfest:

- Kressler (sp) will get stuff to us about when and how many
- We aren't credited in the campus-wide handout thing, but we should be

AMC:

- To be held in November or December
- Recruit groups on campus

Formal Meetings:

- They will be the second meeting of each month

Ritual Rehearsal:

- Wednesday at 10
- Join us or die.

New Business:Room Improvements:

- Old Platform? Scrap it and burn it
- We're donating the brunette. To whom? Probably Bruske
- We want a new fridge, preferably one that's not a Freon-leaking death trap
- A new platform or shelving unit would be ideas for probie projects
- The brunette and Will's piano need to be out by the end of November
- Kevin, Danny, Brian, and Jesse will look up specs on fridges

Fall Cleaning:

- We'll make a list of the shit in the room that we want to get rid of and e-mail it to the alumni to see if they want any of it
- If yes, come get it
- If no, we pitch it into Danny's mom's vagina, where it will be sucked up like ants into a vacuum cleaner.
- Adam and Will will do this, because Will already started and Adam's the room manager

Chapter Day:

- We'll send each other Happy Chapter Day e-mails
- I suggested Bocce, and everyone else agreed. NEW TRADITION!

Food Issues:

- Stop spending money and expecting to get reimbursed
- We need to grill this leftover stuff before it goes bad.
- Those who want to can kick in $5-$10 each week to buy other requirements (buns, chips, condiments, beverages, etc.). Donations only, nothing else from chapter funds.
- Will wants the meat out of his freezer, damn it!

Announcements:

- Tom "Beardo St. Pierre" McGuire contacted Brian this week and is doing quite well in the land of the rifle-dropping surrender-monkey. He'll be back in late December. Find Brian if you want his contact information, or go on Facebook.

- Still no word from Brad “Bill Boman” Baughman
- Jesse “Captain Blackhat” Belkiewicz received an e-mail about a charity poker tournament. This may or may not be a scam and it may or may not be connected with the Yakuza. Naturally, we’re very interested.
- Andy’s Birthday is Oct. 9. LET’S GET THAT BITCH DRUNK!
- They are looking for people to sing the National Anthem at all sporting events on campus. We should look into it.

Closing – Sinfonia Anthem and Parting Song sung, meeting adjourns
